

INALCO's French as a Foreign Language Section

Every year, the INALCO French as a Foreign Language Section (nicknamed INAL'FLE) welcomes foreign students enrolled in our international exchange programmes, as well as free-mover students who wish to pursue their studies in a French speaking country or integrate the job market with improved linguistic proficiency. Our FFL section offers a variety of semester courses, from level A1 to level C1, based on the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
